In response to a need for qualified Sanathan Priests, The Shree Sanathan Dharma Sabha of SA wishes to announce that it will, with the help and support of the Shri Luxmi Narayan Temple, offer a three year purohit Vidhi course through correspondence.

This course will equip the students with the knowledge to conduct pujas. The basic minimum requirement to be eligible to undertake the course is a reasonable level of Hindi (must be able to read & write Hindi- the Devanagari script, not transliteration). Those who have successfully completed the Pravesh Hindi course of the Hindi Shiksha Sangh of SA will qualify. In addition, applicants must have access to email and the internet since study material will be made available electronically. In addition students will be required to attend 3 workshop contact sessions on predetermined dates. The final examinations, both written and oral will be conducted on a pre-determined date in November/December each year. Those wishing to undertake this course should be able to devote at least five hours per week to their studies.

The cost of the course R500 per year.

Application forms will be available on the website :

www.luxminarayan.org.

Closing date for applications is 12 February 2016.
